

Pledge to Donors

Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, Inc. promises to carry out the intent of each and every donation that it receives. Without your compassion and generosity, we would not be able to do our work for the poor and needy. Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, Inc. pledges the following to you, our donors and supporters:

- We will acknowledge all donations and support;
- We will use all donations for their intended purpose;
- We welcome questions from donors and will answer all questions truthfully;
- We will keep all donor information confidential;
- We will allow opportunities for donors to have their names removed from our mailing list;
- We will be open and transparent in our reporting of donations and support;
- We will make an annual report available to donors and the public;
- We will remain aware and educated of all of the individuals who serve on our boards and promise to hold them to the highest standards.
