2019-2020 Annual Report

ARCHDIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

LAUNCHING OUR SECOND CENTURY OF PROVIDING HELP AND CREATING HOPE

Last year, Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, Inc. marked 100 years of “Providing Help and Creating Hope” in Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties, which comprise the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

In our past Century of Compassion, Catholic Charities demonstrated a sincere concern for clients and a commitment to do something about their plight by Providing Help and Creating Hope. Now, as we are launching our Second Century of Service, we are renewing that pledge, even as we face the challenges of the pandemic and protests.

Catholic Charities’ staff, at our community centers, shelters and other programs, are dedicated to Providing Help to our clients for their material needs and to Creating Hope to address their emotional needs. Help and Hope are especially important during this time of coronavirus and civil unrest.

Through the agency’s many programs, Catholic Charities helps by providing:

- Food pantries, sack lunches and mobile outreach to families, children and single adults, including homeless persons; nutrition education classes; CalFresh application assistance;
- Clothing and thrift stores; household supplies; bus tokens and taxi vouchers; financial literacy and budgeting classes; independent living assistance for the frail elderly;
- Housing, including rental and utility assistance, eviction prevention, motel vouchers; ten shelters, transitional residences and long-term housing facilities;
- After-school care and tutoring, sports and summer programs for youth; job training and employment services; ESL and GED classes; workshops for adults; and
- Services for refugees, asylees, immigrants and foreign-born trafficking survivors; naturalization and citizenship exam classes; family reunification; legal representation.

The help provided by our programs and the kindness shown to clients by our staff calms them and creates hope that their struggles will end, as we assist them with their increased needs caused by the COVID-19 crisis.

We are grateful to you, our donors and supporters, for collaborating with Catholic Charities to carry out this service to poor and vulnerable persons in the three-county area of Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara. Together, we are beginning our Second Century of Service.

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities:

The motto of Catholic Charities, the social service arm of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, is "Providing Help. Creating Hope." This slogan addresses the reality that the needy and vulnerable persons whom Catholic Charities assists are poor both materially and spiritually. They need both help and hope.

Mother Teresa wisely noted, "Loneliness is the most terrible form of poverty." The staff of Catholic Charities strive to show compassion and love to the suffering people who come to the agency for help. Staff realize it is not enough to provide food without showing kindness or to provide housing without demonstrating care.

Catholic Charities ended its Century of Compassion at the end of 2019 and began its Second Century of Service this year. Mother Teresa reminded us, "The fruit of love is service which is compassion in action." Catholic Charities recommits itself to be the hands and arms of Jesus in reaching out to those who are needy not only for food and shelter, but also for human kindness.

Catholic Charities serves almost one hundred thousand people each year through many programs and works of mercy: feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the frail and elderly who live by themselves, and giving monetary assistance to the poor.

In the 2019-2020 fiscal year, Catholic Charities began two new programs. Jobe's House has a residence for Transition Age Youth (TAY), young men who have aged out of the foster care system and are homeless, and another site for TAY young women. Good Shepherd Shelter is a transitional residence with a school and supportive programs for mothers and their children who are victims of domestic violence.

This annual report describes the Catholic Charities' programs in its five regions, which correspond to the five Pastoral Regions of the Archdiocese, as well as in its intra-agency programs.

However, Catholic Charities cannot carry out its mission unless we carry out ours. I pray that your heart will be opened as you read this latest annual report and reflect on the good work that Catholic Charities is doing, realizing that we can be doing even more. We are challenged to give generously to support the Catholic Charities' mission of Providing Help and Creating Hope for those in need.

Entrusting your families to the tender care of Our Blessed Mother Mary, I pray that God will grant you all peace and joy.

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities:

The novel written by Charles Dickens, A Tale of Two Cities, begins with the opening line, "It was the best of times; it was the worst of times." This quote is an appropriate description of Catholic Charities' fiscal year 2019-2020. In the first half of the year, we celebrated our Centennial year and, in the second half of the year, we suffered from the coronavirus. These were two major events in the history of Catholic Charities.

During our Centennial year, Catholic Charities celebrated the lives of men and women who served the poor and abandoned in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles by providing help and creating hope. For 100 years, people have come to Catholic Charities' community centers and shelters for food and shelter, affordable after-school childcare, immigration and refugee assistance, psychological services, job skills training, and other supportive services.

One month after Catholic Charities celebrated our Centennial, the coronavirus entered the global scene. We responded by providing food, shelter, utility and rent expenses. With the exception of a few programs, we were able to keep our programs open to serve those negatively impacted by COVID-19. During the first six months period of the crisis, Catholic Charities served 106,743 individuals. This is in addition to the other services we provided during that time.

The plot of A Tale of Two Cities involves Sydney Carton's sacrifice of his own life on behalf of his friends, Charles Darnay and Lucie Manette. Carton's last speech, in which he says of his replacing Darnay in a prison cell, "It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done; it is a far, far better rest that I go to, than I have ever known."

For the first 100 years of Catholic Charities' existence and now, for the second 100 years, Catholic Charities' staff and volunteers will continue to sacrifice their lives for others because, "It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done."

God bless,

Rev. Monsignor Gregory A. Cox
Executive Director

A resident youth enjoys the play equipment in the large Good Shepherd Shelter recreation area. There is also a pre-school, Pre-K to Sixth Grade, an Adult Learning Center, therapeutic services, and pro-bono assistance, all on-site.

Resident mothers and children tend a vegetable garden at Good Shepherd Shelter. The length of stay for each family is usually one year. The mother meets with staff at regular intervals to discuss short-term and long-term goals.

JOBE HOUSE

Jobe House in Northridge provides a home for ten Transitional Age Youth (TAY), young men who transitioned out of foster care. Five TAY young women reside in an apartment building.

The kitchen and dining room are favorite places of Jobe House residents. The transitional living program allows TAY youth to pursue their educational and vocational dreams to utilize their individual strengths to end the cycle of poverty.

A spacious back yard with swimming pool and spa enhance the peaceful atmosphere of Jobe House. The mission of the program is to create a trauma-informed, culturally aware, safe and stable environment for TAY youth.

OUR LADY OF THE ANGELS PASTORAL REGION

Fresh food and staples for low and very low-income individuals and families are provided at the Lompoc Community Center, as well as case management, financial assistance for rent and utilities and for seniors with companion dogs.

In addition to food, the Moorpark Food Pantry also offers clothing, rental and utility assistance and a satellite office of the OASIS (Older Adult Services and Intervention System) program to support the independence of seniors living at home.

A family who came to the Ventura Community Services Center for food is assisted by a volunteer. The center also provides rental and utilities' assistance, Covered California application assistance and a satellite office of the OASIS program.

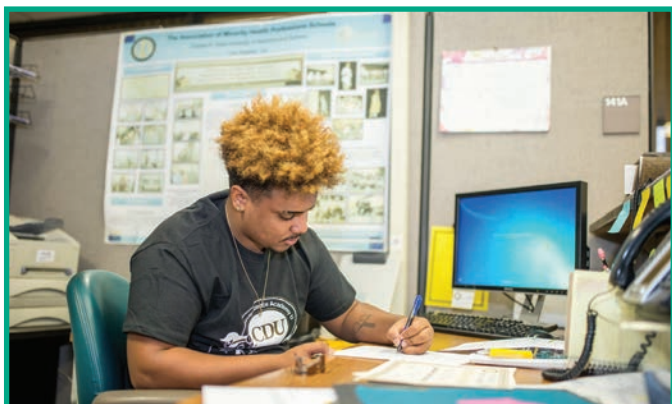

A client of the Ventura Community Services Center enthusiastically holds up her utility bill, which was paid by the center. The center also offers CalFresh application assistance, disaster aid, holiday gift and food baskets.

ARCHDIOCESAN YOUTH EMPLOYMENT SERVICES (AYE)

Archdiocesan Youth Employment Services (AYE) has partnerships with employers, community groups and local educational agencies to provide comprehensive youth services and leverage limited public resources to better serve the community and young people.

Since 1965, AYE has served over 130,000 youth and adults with job training, employment, counseling and referral services. AYE provides paid internships for nearly all youth they serve.

AYE and network partner programs' outcomes include job placement, entry into post-secondary education or advanced training, credential attainment or high school diploma and literacy-numeracy gains. AYE serves youth and adults from low-income neighborhoods in Los Angeles County.

CATHOLIC YOUTH ORGANIZATION (CYO)

The Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) is an after-school and weekend athletic program for Catholic elementary and junior high schools throughout Los Angeles County. The 2020 Nativity School Girls' Basketball Team is pictured here.

CYO promotes and develops good sportsmanship, cooperation, camaraderie, respect, responsibility and acceptance of both victory and defeat. This photo was taken at the 2020 St. Elizabeth School versus Incarnation School Boys' Basketball game.

EMPLOYMENT SUPPORT PARTNERSHIP (ESP)

This Esperanza attorney conducts the Department of Justice's Legal Orientation Program at Esperanza's office. Esperanza provides legal services, including legal rights classes, screening, placement with "pro bono" attorneys and direct representation, to especially vulnerable immigrant children and adults.

IMMIGRATION SERVICES

Immigration Services helps those seeking to legalize their residency status, assists them to become naturalized citizens, aids families to file petitions to immigrate their relatives, assists clients in adjusting to their immigration status and represents clients before USCIS.

Immigration Services enables the unification of families by legalizing persons who are residing in the U.S. without legal immigration status and by assisting the lawful immigrants of family members to the U.S.

The immigration attorneys and counselors are partially or fully accredited by the Board of Immigration Appeals and speak Vietnamese, Spanish, Chinese and English. A client is assisted in learning about the United States.

REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT

The Refugee Resettlement program, that began with the resettlement of Hungarian Refugees after World War II, was not active in FY2019-2020. However, staff continued to reach out to former resettlement clients to offer immigration services and support.

MAJOR DONORS

Since 1919, Catholic Charities has served the needy and impoverished residents of Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties by providing emergency food and shelter, case management and supportive services. All programs help to enable clients to become more self-sufficient.

With the financial support of individual donors, churches, foundations, corporations, organizations and federal, state and local governments, as well as in collaboration with other social service agencies, Catholic Charities of Los Angeles rendered almost 800,000 services during the past fiscal year (July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020). Without the help of these dedicated partners, the human services' work of Catholic Charities could not continue.

WAYS TO SUPPORT THE WORK OF CATHOLIC CHARITIES

The work of Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, including our financial and service delivery practices, is externally validated by the Council on Accreditation. Our commitment to accountability and transparency is authenticated by our coveted Four-Star Charity rating from Charity Navigator, an independent charity evaluator.

Our community centers continue to witness a rise in the number of people who struggle to survive and who seek critical basic needs' assistance. While Catholic Charities has significantly developed its programs and services over the years, we still face considerable challenges in meeting our clients' growing population and needs. Here are some ways you can assist us in serving our vulnerable clients:

- ◆ DONATE ONLINE - Visit www.CatholicCharitiesLA.org and click the red "Donate Now" button to make secure online donations or explore the "How To Help" section to learn about easy ways to support Catholic Charities.
- ◆ JOIN THE JOYFUL GIVERS CIRCLE - Make a monthly pledge commitment as part of this group of dedicated contributors.
- ◆ DONATE YOUR OLD VEHICLE - Hand over the keys to your car, truck, R.V. or boat and Catholic Charities will receive 80% of the sales revenue. Call (855) 370-4483 or visit our website: www.CatholicCharitiesLA.org/donate-your-vehicle/.
- ◆ HAVE YOUR EMPLOYER MATCH YOUR GIFT - Contact your company's Human Resources Department to obtain a matching gift form.
- ◆ MAKE A MEMORIAL OR TRIBUTE GIFT - Honor someone special by making a donation in his or her name.
- ◆ SUPPORT THROUGH PLANNED GIVING - Give through wills and trusts, charitable gift annuities, life insurance, appreciated securities, real estate, cash and other property. Visit www.ccla.plannedgiving.org to discover the variety of charitable choices and calculate what works for you.
- ◆ GIVE TO THE FUND FOR THE FUTURE ENDOWMENT - Become a member of the Fund for the Future Society by contributing to Catholic Charities' long-term endowment. Through estate gift and life income programs, the endowment expands the agency's financial base so that it will continue to grow and meet the increasing needs of the communities Catholic Charities serves.

St. Robert's Center's The Landing, a program for pregnant and parenting youth, ages 14-24, and their children, provides baby clothes and supplies, food, showers, laundry facilities, yoga/meditation, computer/internet, counseling and case management.
